

The Vancouver Club of Printing House Craftsmen

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Vancouver Club of Printing House Craftsmen is one of over sixty chapters in five regions across North America and is part of the international organization "IAPHC - The Graphic Professionals Resource Network".

The Mission Statement of the Organization is:

"The International Association of Printing House Craftsmen is an international organization dedicated to individuals in the printing and graphic arts industry for the purpose of their self development, their companies' success, and the enhancement of the printing and graphic arts industry in society." It does this through education, information, and research both through local chapters and through its executive staff.

The Motto of the Organization is: "Share Your Knowledge".

The Vancouver Club of Printing House Craftsmen holds eight monthly dinner meetings on the fourth Wednesday of every month, September to May (except December) unless otherwise noted at: The Firefighters Social and Athletic Club 6515 Bonsor Avenue, Burnaby, BC.
